

For All Your Catering Needs

Really Good Food
For So Many Reasons

Hello,

Do you need to feed a group?

I can make it possible for you in three simple steps!

1. Determine the "Type" of event - Desserts, Lunch, hors d'oeuvres, or Master Mix and Mingle, dinner i.e. casual, sit down, formal or in between.
2. Estimate a Budget - Determine how much you would like to purchase and how much you would like to do yourself. It can be as simple as picking out a few selections, or as elaborate as a fully catered party. I can guide you through the costs associated with the different services.
3. Call - We'll work out a plan that works for you. Tell us what foods your guests will enjoy and what you want your event to be. We'll work out a quick menu; you'll edit and approve as needed.
I'm very flexible, so you can give us your final guest count the week before the event.

It's that simple. I'll take care of the details so you enjoy a successful get-together. Be a GUEST at you own Party.

Dear Ed,

I and my guests cannot thank you enough for the delightful dinner party that you catered for us. First and foremost, the food was absolutely delicious. We enjoyed every bite of the meticulously prepared meal. You made my dinner party an evening to remember. It also was wonderful for me to be able to relax and enjoy my guests and your company. I will definitely use your catering services again and would highly recommend you to others.

Thanks again, Ed. It really made us feel special.

Sandy

All desserts were great! We especially liked the cherry pie and the chocolate/peanut butter cake!

Bradford Elementary

The quality and the taste of everything was excellent! Jennie and all the guests made numerous positive remarks through out the day.

Thanks, Cathy

The food was great and there was more than enough. We passed what was left on to the Sr. High for a function they were having Sunday. The dinner mints were a nice touch.

Thanks So Much, Peg

The service was great and the food was enjoyed by all. Some said, "It's the best cabbage and noodles I've ever had."

Everything was taken care of and prompt. Food was abundant and just outstanding. Thanks.

Wonderful lunch. The quality of the food was excellent and it was evident that the food was home prepared and not processed like some. We would and will recommend your service to family, friends, and colleagues.
